Forecast For Dumfries, Galloway, Lothian & Borders
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 0400 on Saturday 24 Jul 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Becoming very warm and sunny but east coast cooler, cloudier.

Today:
Low cloud and mist across the Lothians and eastern Borders soon burning back to the coast, where it may linger through the day. Otherwise another warm or, especially in west, very warm day with almost unbroken sunshine and light winds. Maximum temperature 26 deg C (79 deg F).

Tonight:
Some late evening sunshine for most but low cloud and mist edging back inland overnight, perhaps giving some patchy light drizzle. Some long clear spells remaining in west. Minimum temperature 10 deg C (50 deg F).

Sunday:
Early low cloud and mist soon burning back to the east coast to leave another dry and largely sunny day. Warm or very warm again with light winds. Maximum temperature 25 deg C (77 deg F).

Outlook for Monday to Wednesday:
Much cooler and becoming more unsettled with showers or longer spells of rain, these heavy and perhaps thundery at times.
